"And even to your old age I am He; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you." Isaiah 46:4

WHAT A marvelous promise is this in days of foreboding, when we fear what may lie behind the veil of the uncertain future! Disease? Poverty? Suffering? Bereavement? We cannot tell, but we may turn in confidence to our God. He knows just how much we can bear, for He has made us: "I have made, and I will bear and will deliver you."

Even to old age! The hoar-frost may silver the head. The sound of the grinding may be low. The silver cord may be frayed even to the breaking. Family and friends may have passed on to the other world. Like the last apple on the branch, we may be left alone; but in the second childhood as in the first – "even to your old age-I will carry you".

Hebrews 13:5 "Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU."

In Him,
