

Finding Joy in Hard Times

Pastor's Desk – March 10, 2019

Who can say “It is good to be afflicted?” Can we really say that or was it just David in the book of Psalms 119:71? He was right when he said, that for him, it was through affliction that he learned God’s statutes.

Affliction brings brokenness, humility, and most importantly, it brings us before God seeking help. Psalms 119:143 says, “Trouble and anguish have overtaken me, yet your commandments are my delight.” Delights are post-affliction, God always points us to the light in the end, and joy comes in the morning.

Our best days are ahead of us, the gold, after being refined by fire looks pure and beautiful!

Greater Glory is on the way!

God bless you,
