

Why Would You Marry Him If He Has No Job?

Pastor's Desk – April 9, 2017

Someone may suggest that this is a very strong statement, and it is! It's based on a biblical concept we find in the first book of the Bible, Genesis. According to the first 25 verses in Genesis 1, God created a place (earth) which He saw was good. Gen. 1:25: "And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good."

Then He created Adam; in the next chapter God gave him a job: Gen. 2:15: "The LORD God placed the man in the Garden of Eden to take care of it and to look after it." The owner of the first job service in the world was God! What does this verse have to do with marriage, one may ask? Well, God gave Adam a place to live and it was good. God gave him employment then gave him a wife! (Gen. 2:17). So beloved sisters, if you are a woman, you shouldn't consider marrying a dude who has no place to put his head and no job. That's not how God did it.

The role in Genesis was that the man is supposed to provide for his family (Gen. 3:19). I by no means want to destroy marriage dreams, just giving you godly and biblical advice. I believe that a godly marriage has and will always have it's foundation in God! And He won't give you a lazy, jobless, and homeless guy who has no place to lay his head. God is your father and has the best in mind for you. Therefore I suggest to you: “follow God’s standard” no matter how cute he may be! Why would you marry a jobless man anyway?

In Him,
