

Understanding to Discern Justice

Pastor's Desk – June 4, 2017

Recently my wonderful God asked me: “What’s your heart’s desire, and I will give you.” WOW! I had only a few seconds to answer, and I picked one among hundreds, He said also it had to be only one! And I, with a heart filled with gratitude, placed my request.

The book of 1Kings 3:5-14 tells us that King Solomon was also asked by God a similar question. His answer pleased God and He gave Solomon not only what he asked for, but also riches and honor. The answer was understanding to discern justice, a selfless desire, to be equipped to do his best for God!

What a wonderful God we serve, He always wants our best. He cares, He loves, and He gives us our hearts’ desires.

When we do His will, He will do ours. First Him, Second Me.

In His wonderful love,
Co-Pastor Marcia Santos
