

Your “DADDY” Will Meet You Wherever You Are!

Pastor’s Desk – January 27, 2019

Somehow there is a false thinking that God, our God is somewhere in a very distant galaxy hiding Himself from these messed up humans and they need to follow some kind of ritual so that they can connect to Him! That’s a big fat lie! I will give you proof right now that as long as there is a contrite heart seeking Him, He will do all in His power to meet His Children wherever they are – and you are one of them if you have received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Here is an example:

The Prophet Jonah disobeyed God’s instructions and went the very opposite way he was supposed to go. A storm caught up with him and he was thrown overboard in the middle of the ocean. (Jonah 1:15). Being swallowed by a big fish, in that smelly stomach he cried out to God earnestly! (Jonah 2:1) Guess what? His “Daddy” God heard him! (Jonah 2:10) God caused the fish a stomach ache and it vomited Jonah out, right where he was supposed to be in the first place. (Jonah 3:1)

I know that wasn’t the most convenient place to call upon God, but my point is: it doesn’t matter where you are right now! God will come to the rescue at all times, even if you call upon Him from such a smelly place as a fish’s belly! He will meet you wherever you are and He is ready to answer your earnest prayers.

Come on, lift your head, put a smile on your face, learn today that you are not alone and help is just a prayer away. Your “DADDY” God will meet you wherever you are right now!

Pastor Paul Santos
