

Your “DADDY” Will Meet You Wherever You Are Pastor’s Desk ~ July 16, 2017

Somehow there is a false thinking that God, our God, is somewhere in a very distant galaxy hiding Himself from these messed up humans, that need to follow some kind of ritual so that they can connect to Him! That’s a big fat lie! I will give you proof right now, that as long as there is a contrite heart seeking Him, He will do all in His power to meet His Children wherever they are, and you are one of them if you have received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.

Here are some examples: The Prophet Jonah disobeyed God’s instructions and went the very opposite way he was supposed to go. A storm caught up with him and he was thrown overboard in the middle of the ocean, Jonah 1:15. Being swallowed by a big fish, in that smelly fish stomach, he cried out to God earnestly, Jonah 2:1 and guess what?, His “Daddy”, God, heard him! Jonah 2:10. God caused a stomachache in the fish and it vomited Jonah right where he was supposed to be in the first place. Jonah 3:1.

I know that wasn't the most convenient place to call upon God, but my point is: it doesn't matter where you are right now! God will come to the rescue at all times, even if you called upon Him from a place as smelly as a fish belly! He will meet you wherever you are, and He is ready to answer your earnest prayers. Come on; lift up your head, put a smile in your face, learning today that you are not alone, and help is just a prayer away. Your "DADDY, God, will meet you wherever you are right now!"

In our DADDY's service,
Pr. Paul
