

A Life of Devotion Will Be Rewarded!

Pastor's Desk – August 18, 2019

In a time where man in power rewards lawlessness, it is no surprise we have this tumult and havoc going around that cause fear and desperation all around us. Nevertheless, I believe the best way to dissipate uncertainty and be rewarded at the end, comes when we train and teach ourselves the ways of God. The rewards from our devotion to God have no expiration date!

We read in the book of Psalms the following words: "Only those whose hands and hearts are pure, who do not worship idols and never tell lies. They will receive the LORD's blessing and have a right relationship with God their savior." Psa. 24:4-5 NLT. As we can see here, God will take notice of our faithfulness and devotion to Him, and will grant us not only the blessings to live a good life, but also will grant us the right to have a relationship with Him!

I think The Lord has already tipped us, through His Word, on what to do; our task is not allowing ourselves to be derailed with all the nonsense going around us. Clear hands and clear hearts have its payoff at the end of the day because God's rewards have no expiration date. May He continue to reward us for our devotion and faithfulness to Him.

In His service
Pr. Paul Santos