

SOUL GROWTH

Pastor's Desk – September 3, 2023

Psalms 63:8 "My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me." (KJV)

Three notes in this Psalm indicate the stages of the soul's maturation: "My soul thirsts for You," "my soul will be satisfied," and "my soul follows hard after You."

There could be a moment when we may pass through a wilderness of spiritual drought, the night of the soul, the seasons of dryness and unhappiness that are prone to occur.

In some circumstances, such as when Elijah requested to die, or when John sent his melancholy question to the Lord Jesus from his prison; it results from physical or mental overstrain. But at such times, let us never waver to speak of God as "my God". Nothing can sever you from His endless Love.

You may not have a joyful consciousness, but you must never abandon your belief in it. Go on blessing The Lord as long as you live and lift your hands in prayer. We can never be satisfied with what we have achieved - remember, God is ever moving onward! Let us follow strong after Him.

At His service,
