

God's Gentle Folks

Pastor's Desk – November 19, 2023

Our goal is always to be understanding and patient with others, even if they display bad manners or rudeness. We should acknowledge that some people tend to be grumpy due to their inherent nature. We are patient with the guilty, for we also are prone to err.

2 Timothy 2:24 “And a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, able to teach, patient...”

Cultivating the fruit of the Spirit is, at times, difficult because it has many counterfeits. But gentleness requires awareness of a significant amount of inner strength. The gentleness of our Lord is integrated with omnipotence!

Great strength has the privilege of being gentle. Always remember that you are connected to God and that anything is possible - infinite pity is a must. Our goal is always to be understanding and patient with others, even if they display bad manners or rudeness. We should acknowledge that some people tend to be grumpy due to their inherent nature. We are patient with the guilty, for we also are prone to err.

Our anger towards others should always be tempered by remembering our own transgressions so that we may become gentlefolks of God.

Pr. Teddy Santos
